Budgie of the Month & Other Competitions

Budgie of the Month

On going monthly competition where all members can enter their cutest budgie picture.

Rules: All photo's submitted must be resized to 640x480 or smaller (not too small though). Here is Instructions: How to Post Images/Pictures

Once the photo's are submitted they will become invisible to the general membership until voting time, this is done so everyone feels that they have an opporutunity at winning, this is NOT a professional contest it is here for all members to have fun and show off their budgie (s).

One photo per month is allowed for submission, you can enter every month but only 1 picture will be considered during that month.

Voting: This is either done by the global moderators/administrators OR voting can also be done by the general membership through a poll system. How voting occurs on a monthly basis is decided by moderators/adminstration.

Winner: There is 1 winner a month and the winner will have a post dedicated to them with the winning picture along with a special "Budgie of the Month" emblem added to their signature for the winning month. The emblem is removed at the end of the month from their signature and assigned to the new winner of the month.

Click Budgie of the Month Competition to enter your picture.

There are always many other competitions that are created up by our Promotion Staff so feel free to hop over to the General Competition Section and browse through and see what is happening. General Competitions
